

Open Book by The Rakes

1. Order the lines:

What am I doing up at the witching hour?

But I'm worried, I'm overdrawn

You are not an open book

I can't do nothing 'bout that

2. Fill in the gaps and do a translation of these verbs:

Pick a book, put a book

Turn the TV

It's 2 AM, there's nothing on

I just need something to focus

3. Correct the mistakes:

Things are coming to slide

Slide out at control

I hope that you come down

I can't eat, can't see

When I open my eyes

The thought of me denies

Me, the rest, and the sky

That I feel

The longer you are fast from me

The more I drift out

I didn't see the warning lines

I was calling through the cracks

They are not

An open tale

I are worn and torn

I are overdrawn
